On Saturday 23rd February the Syro Malabar Youth Movement (SMYM) King’s Lynn Unit was inaugurated by Fr. Varghese Puthenpura (Director of Youth, The Syro Malabar Eparchy of Great Britain) together with Fr. Philip John at Holy Family Church, King’s Lynn.

SMYM King’s Lynn is the 21st unit to be erected in Great Britain. The mission of SMYM includes: to follow the tradition and believes of the Syro Malabar Church for the Kingdom of God and society; to strive for the integral development of the youth; to bind together the youth of the Syro-Malabar Catholic; to help the youth with continuous guidance and support on faith formation, leadership formation, and training for future leaders of the church; and to actively promote life and its values.

Appointed were Mr. Sam Manesh and Iema Johney as leaders of SMYM King’s Lynn.
